

RPRR Team Guidelines

Think of RPRR as your storefront for your business. As you look at a post, is it something you would prominently display in YOUR front window?

We are looking for “pretty” , colorful images and variety

1. NO personal videos of ANY kind
2. Clean links to articles or videos that preview the actual content in a box
3. NO links to team challenges or personal group promotions
4. No links from isasalestools, they lead to that persons contact info.
5. NO Shake comparisons
6. NO Company comparisons
7. NO posts with pak pricing or daily cost on them
8. No links to any articles, recipes or websites that take them OFF our site
9. NO SHARED posts.
10. No Medical claims
11. No WELCOMES of any kind
12. No weight loss/timeline claims only ONE or the other
13. No “Join me” or similar verbiage on ANY post. It must ALWAYS say, “Get with the person that added you to the group” or similar verbiage
14. No references or specific posts about the “9 day cleanse”
15. No bra and/or underwear pics
16. No “offensive” pics (befores usually). The same power can be had from a pic WITH clothes on.
17. No celebrity pictures/posts (sports or tv/film/music) who “allegedly “ use our products . Only Isagenix Sponsored Athletes. Those currently are: Golfer Anna Nordqvist, Golfer Jon Rahm and MMA Fighter, Stipe Miocic.
18. No Grade 7 protein
19. Do not copy and paste a post when you first see it. Save it and post another day. Copy, Customize, Paste.
20. This page is to educate our prospects. It is not to support a person who is ON the system. That is the job of Fresh Start.
21. Also, when a promotion pops, i.e. FREE enrollment, NEW shake, etc everyone’s post cannot be approved. We have to monitor that the page doesn’t get flooded with the same information over and over.
22. No promotion of personal business pages to go “like” a page
